8 August 1955

Acting Chief, INSPECTOR
War Plans Staff Course

Instructors for Project USEFUL #2

1. Commencing 19 September 1955, the Office of Training will conduct its annual two-week orientation of selected military personnel in Room 119, Central Building.

2. Forty officers, selected by the Joint Chiefs of Staff, on a need-to-know basis, will attend. They will represent the following categories of military activity:

Joint Chiefs of Staff
Joint Staffs of Theaters (such as CINCEUR, etc.)
Staff & Faculties of Senior Service Schools
i.e., Naval War College, Command & General Staff
School, Air University, etc.
Office Chief Of Psychological Warfare and the Army Special Forces
Army G-3 and possibly G-2

3. The Chief, PPC, desires that we make the best possible impression on these officers. Therefore, the OTR schedule has attempted to secure the best instructors in the Agency to present CIA's position. One word on the approach to be taken by instructors. We have learned, from the previous running of the course, that military officers are interested in three things: facts, CIA Policy or doctrine and if this does not exist - the doctrine being expressed in training schools. They are not interested in our personal views or opinions except insofar as these views might illustrate a point to be covered.

4. It is requested that your staff furnish instructors for the subjects as indicated in the attached schedule.

5. The undersigned is coordinating Project USEFUL and may be reached on extensions [REDACTED] for further information.
